

Brian Warren:- June 1939 - October 2009

Brian was born along with his twin sister Brenda at RAF Martlesham, the last of twelve brothers and sisters. He then moved to Kesgrave where he attended the local school, until the age of 15 when he followed in his Father's footsteps and joined the RAF. During his 13 years in the RAF as a Radio/Radar Technician he travelled to many parts of the world. On leaving the RAF he returned to Kesgrave and found work with the local steam laundry, whereupon he met his wife Sylvia, after a short courtship they were married in March 1968, by then they were living in Martlesham. In 1968 their first son Alistair was born, it took another 9 years for their second son Lee to be born in 1978. Brian and Sylvia moved to Grundisburgh in June 1994 having done an exchange of houses, during his time in Grundisburgh, which he said was a lovely village, and why hadn't they known about it many years before, he worked as a Lab Technician at Kesgrave High School. After his retirement, Brian's main hobbies were tending to his garden growing all his own vegetables, metal detecting, playing snooker and especially walking his own and his son's dogs sometimes more than once a day come rain or shine.
